The Retirement Revolution:
A New Image of Aging & Longevity

Kelly Ferrin, gerontologist and author of “What’s Age Got To Do With It?” Volume I, and the newest edition Volume II, has been studying aging and retirement issues for over 25 years. She was one of the first to receive a degree in this field from the prestigious Andrus School of Gerontology at the University of Southern California, the top school in the nation for the study of age-related issues. Her vision of the current and future aging of America and the effect of adding 30 years to our life expectancy is creating a new image of aging that could forever change the way we look at our lives and retirement. Kelly is also an AARP Retirement Specialist, newspaper columnist and has been featured on radio and TV talk shows nationwide.
